DATE FILED: 7/28/08

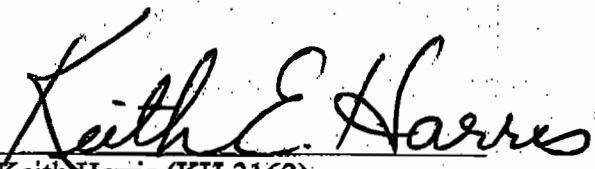

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the undersigned attorneys of record for the respective parties hereto that the claims by the Plaintiffs The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, WTC Retail LLC and the Port Authority Trans-Hudson Corporation (hereafter collectively referred to as "The Port Authority") contained in the Complaint (08 CIV 3701 and dated April 16, 2008) against defendant Delta Air Lines, Inc. (hereafter "Delta") with regard to United Airlines Flight 175 are hereby dismissed without prejudice and without costs to either party as against the other.

The Port Authority reserves the right to recommence its claims if the Court's decision, dated June 27, 2007, granting summary judgment to US Airways, Inc., Colgan Air, Inc. and Continental Airlines, Inc. as to the claims related to United Airlines Flight 175, is reversed, vacated or otherwise reinstated by this or any other court. If such circumstances arise, Delta agrees that such reinstatement of claims will relate back to the date of the original filing and that Delta will not assert a statute of limitations defense to refiled claims. The Port Authority agrees that any such reinstatement of claims will be made within ninety (90) days of the date of an Order reversing or vacating the referenced decision or otherwise reinstating the claims. The Port Authority further agrees that any such reinstatement of claims will be subject to any other relevant defenses for Delta, including the defense of discharge in bankruptcy, except that Delta agrees it will not assert a claim of laches as to The Port Authority's potential challenge of Delta's bankruptcy defenses, so as to render any future challenge by the Port Authority to an assertion by Delta of any defense founded upon discharge in bankruptcy as if the challenge were made on the date of this Stipulation.
